RE: CEASE AND DESIST ACTIVITY

Dear Mr Bible (if that is your real name),

I am writing on behalf of my client, Mr Yahweh God Almighty Jealous Nancy Damn It.

This letter serves as documentation of a pattern of offensive activities that began when you opened a Twitter account in May of 2018. You must immediately cease and desist these activities against my client including, but not limited to, the following:

- Slandering him and his written word
- Criticising his perfectly rational hatred of yeast
- Publishing private conversations between him and Moses
- Frequent use of profanity
- Daring to claim you were made in his image with a face like yours

Your actions are unwanted, unwelcome, and have become unbearable to him; in fact, it repenteth him that he made you! As a result of your behaviour, he has suffered in the following ways:

- Substantial harm to his fragile ego
- Substantial harm to his reputation
- Substantial harm to his followers
- Emotional distress
- Slight headache, elevated pulse, and itchy eyes

I demand that you cease and desist from this activity within forty days and forty nights. If you fail to cease and desist, my client will be forced to take appropriate legal action against you, or he might just smite you.

Sincerely,

Mr Samael Wynn.
